Drag Race

Start your engines and gear up for some fun! In this activity, your child will race to the finish line while practicing reading and spelling. Each time your child reads or spells a word correctly, the road gets longer and the car moves forward.

Ready, set, go!

Assembly Instructions

1. Print pages 3-4 (color) or 5-6 (black-and-white). If you are using the black-and-white version, your child may color the race car and track.
2. Cut out the race car and the starting line. Assemble the car by folding on the lines as indicated. Place the completed car on the starting line.
3. Cut out the racetrack cards. If you will be using this activity for reading, write one review word on the back of each card. If you will be using this activity for spelling, leave the back of the cards blank.

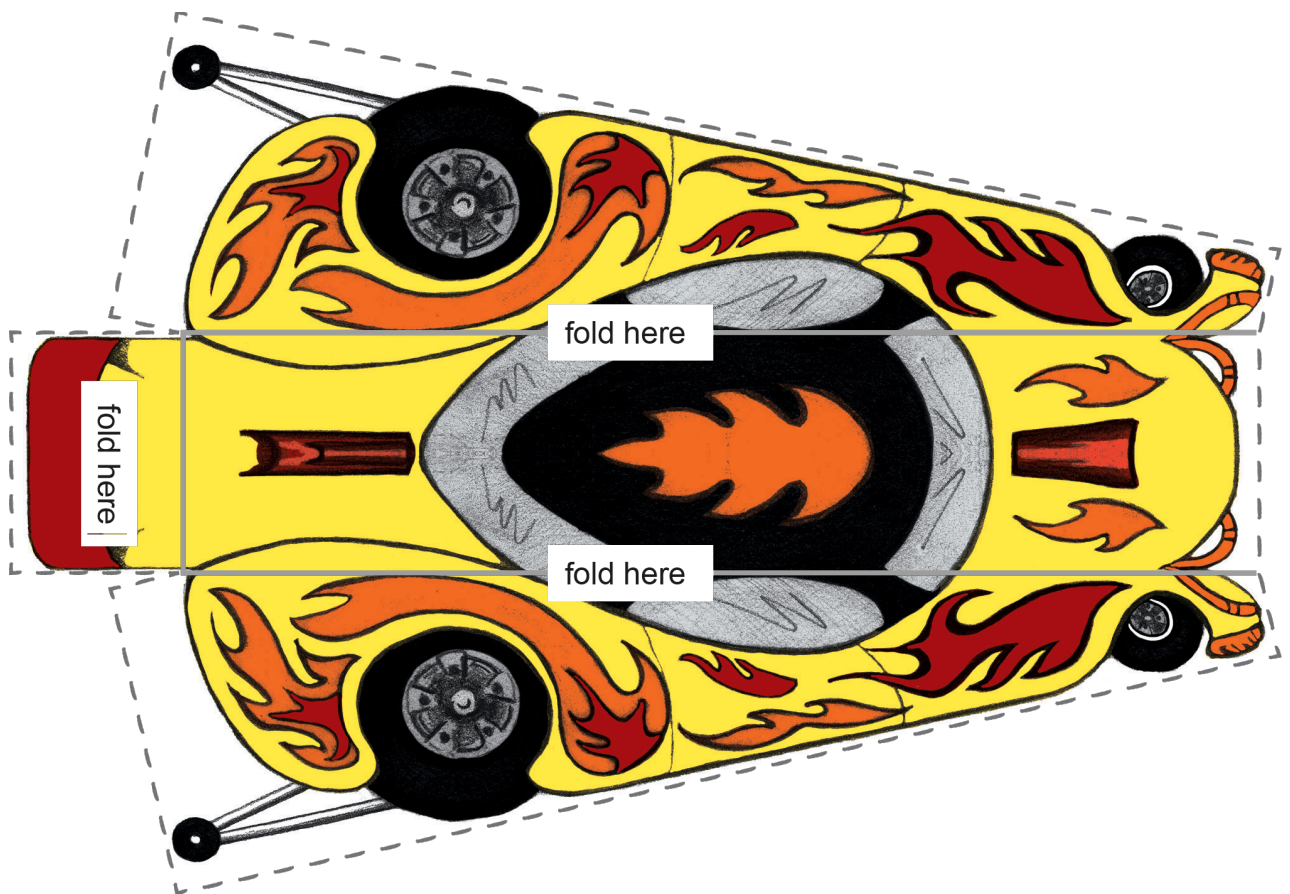

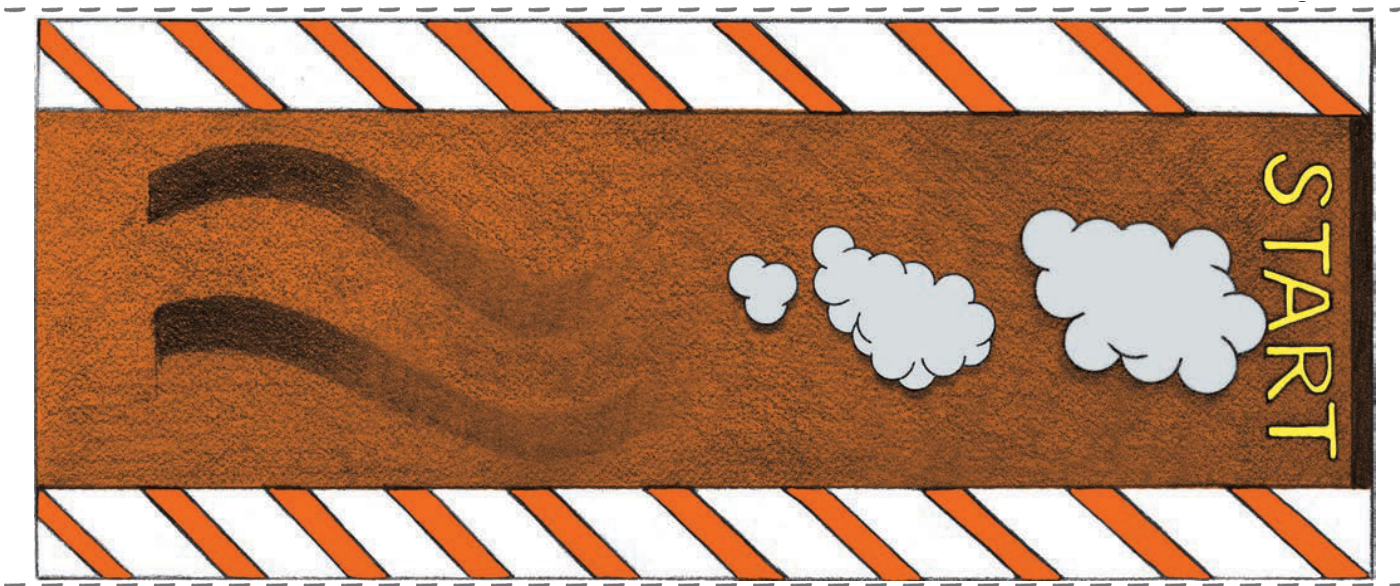

(Note: For repeated use, laminate the track pieces and use a dry erase marker to write reading and spelling words on the back of the cards.)

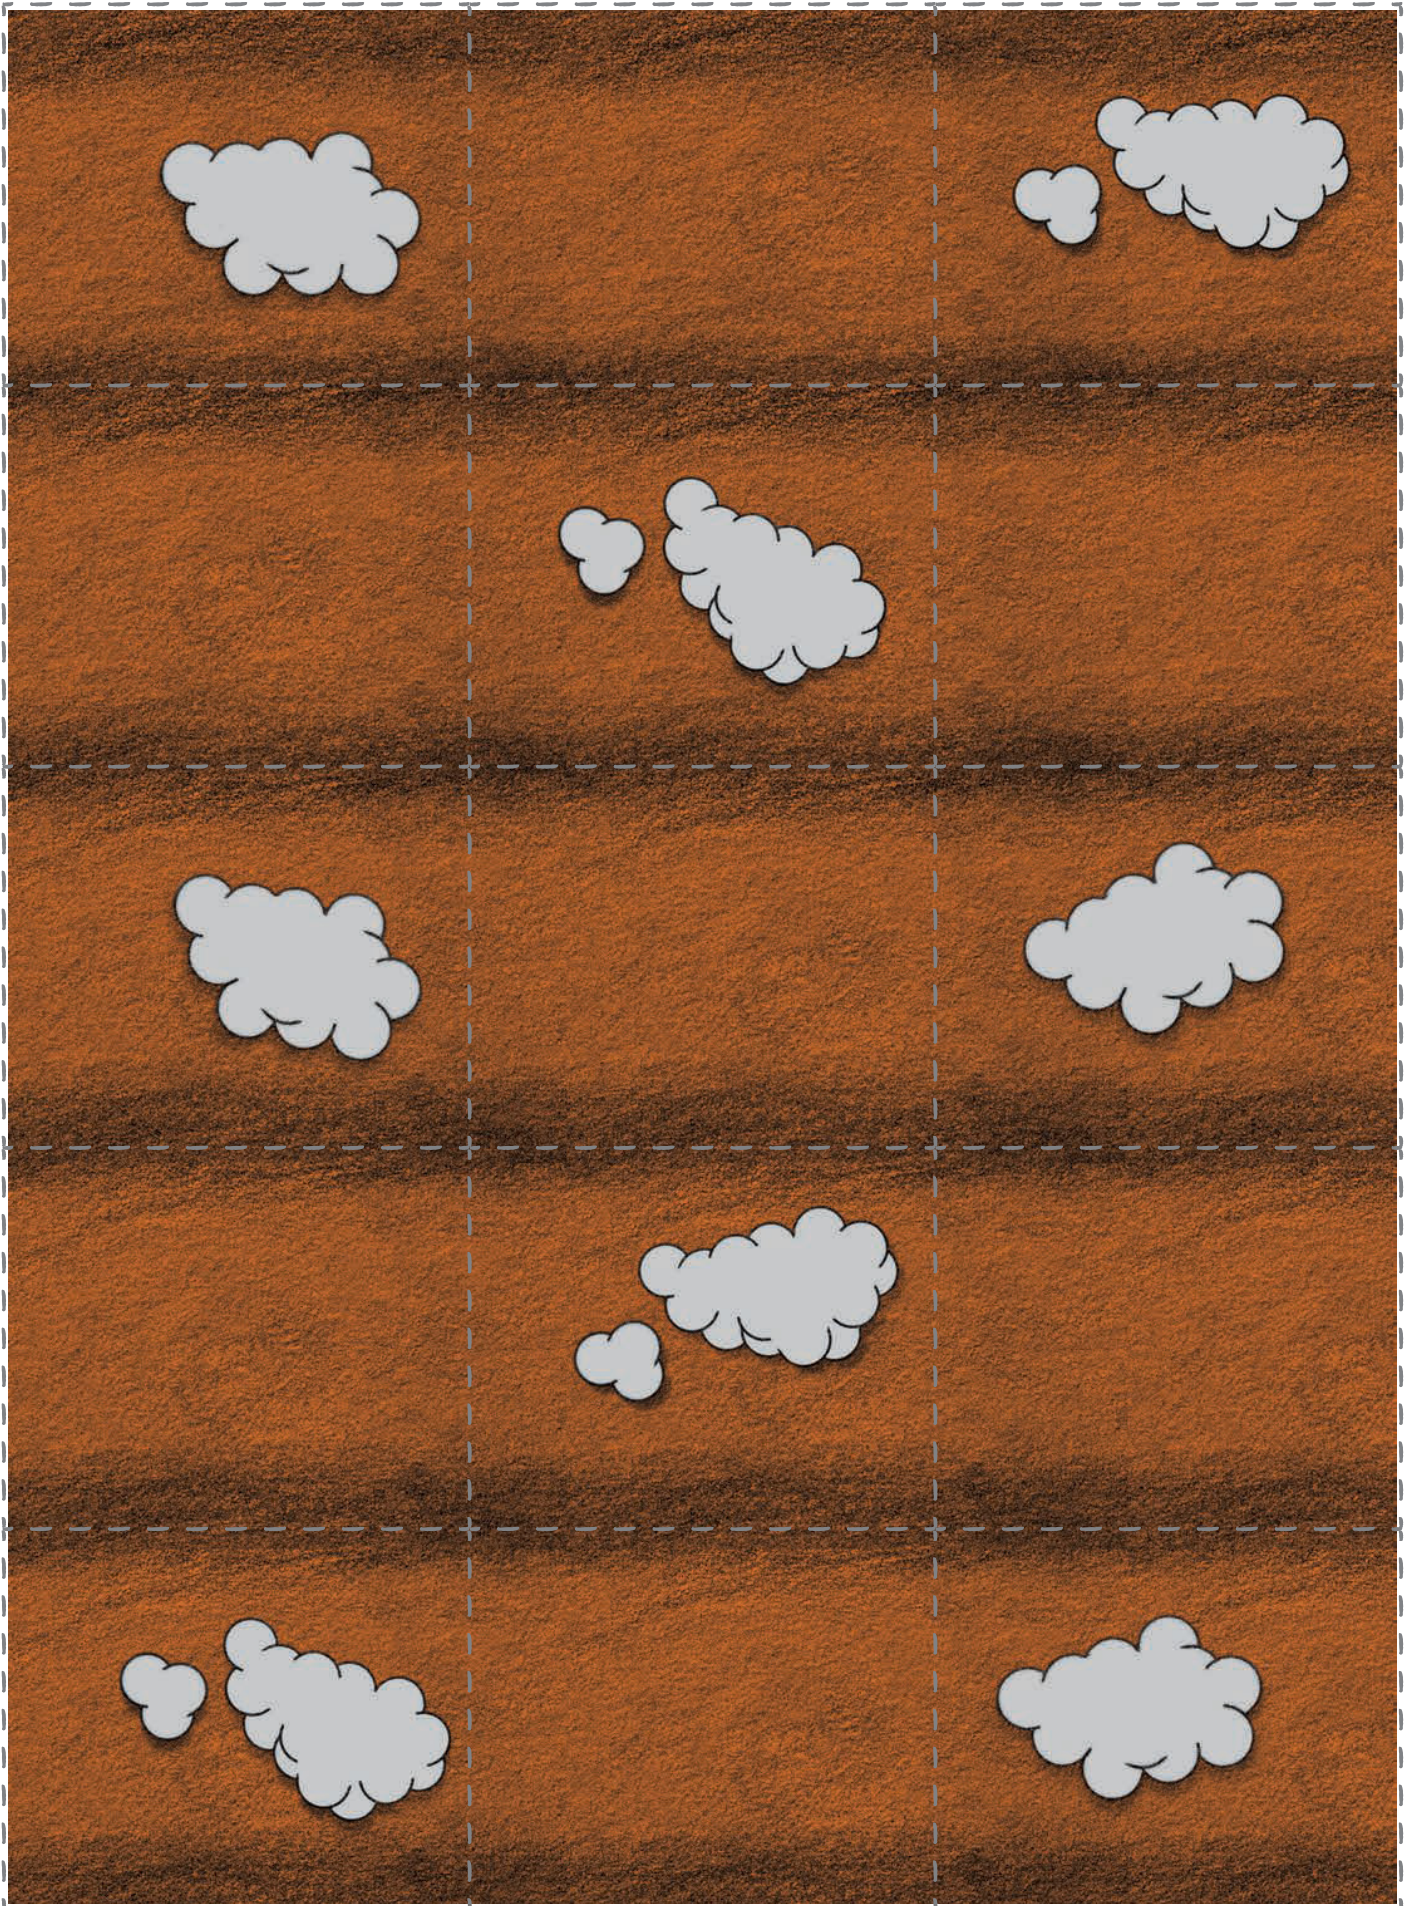

How to Play for Reading

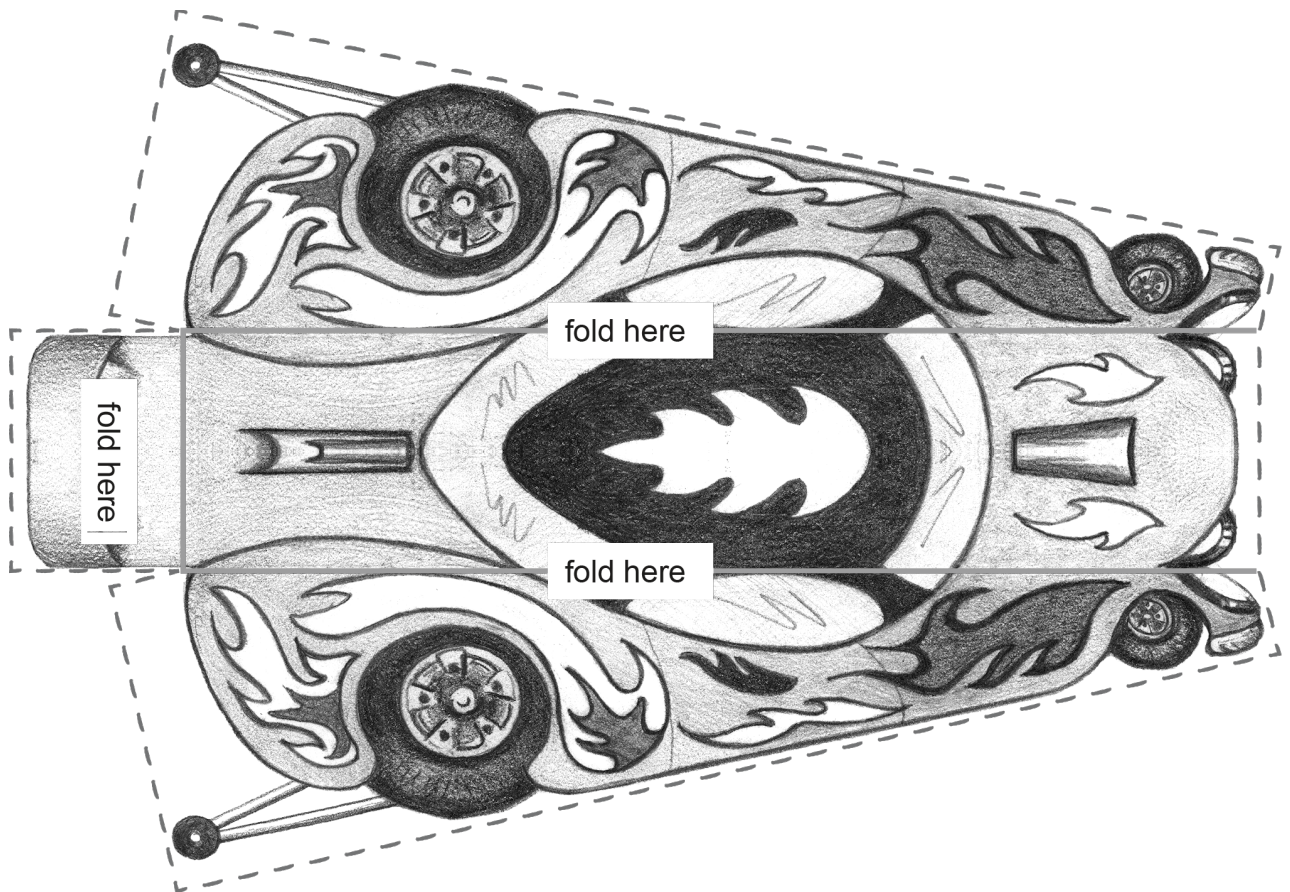

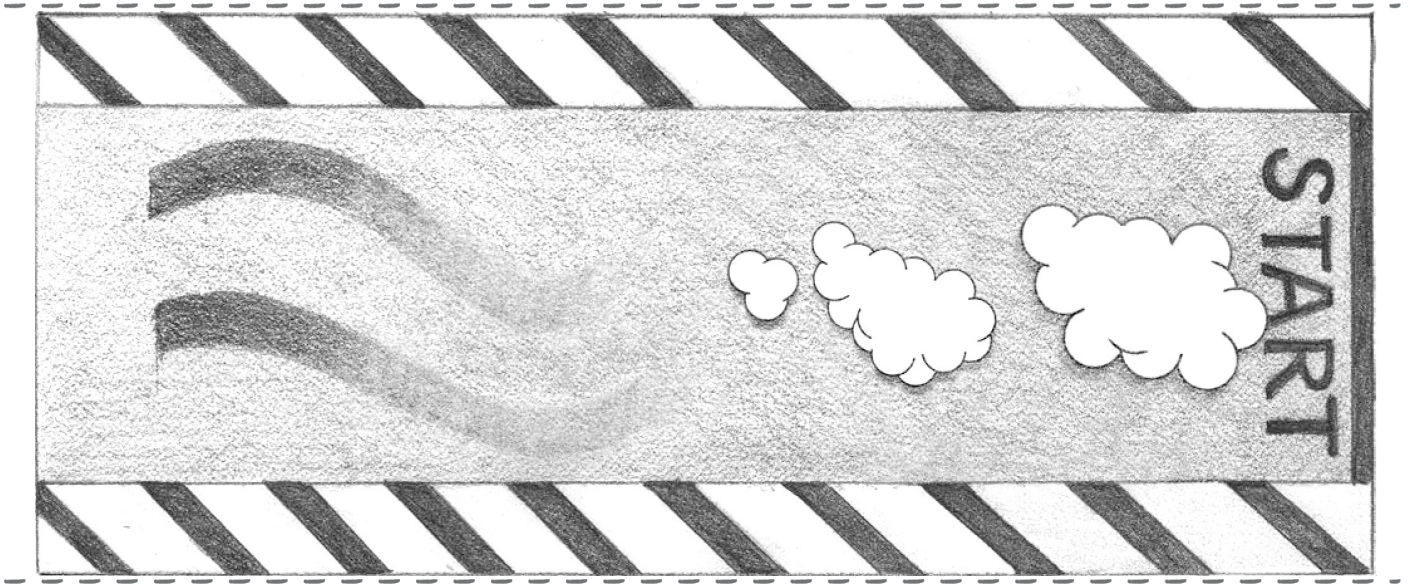

1. Shuffle the racetrack cards and place in a stack with the words facing down.
2. Have your child choose a card from the stack and read the word aloud. If the word is read correctly, use the racetrack card to extend the road and move the car forward.
3. Continue until all the words on the racetrack cards are read and the car reaches the end of the track.

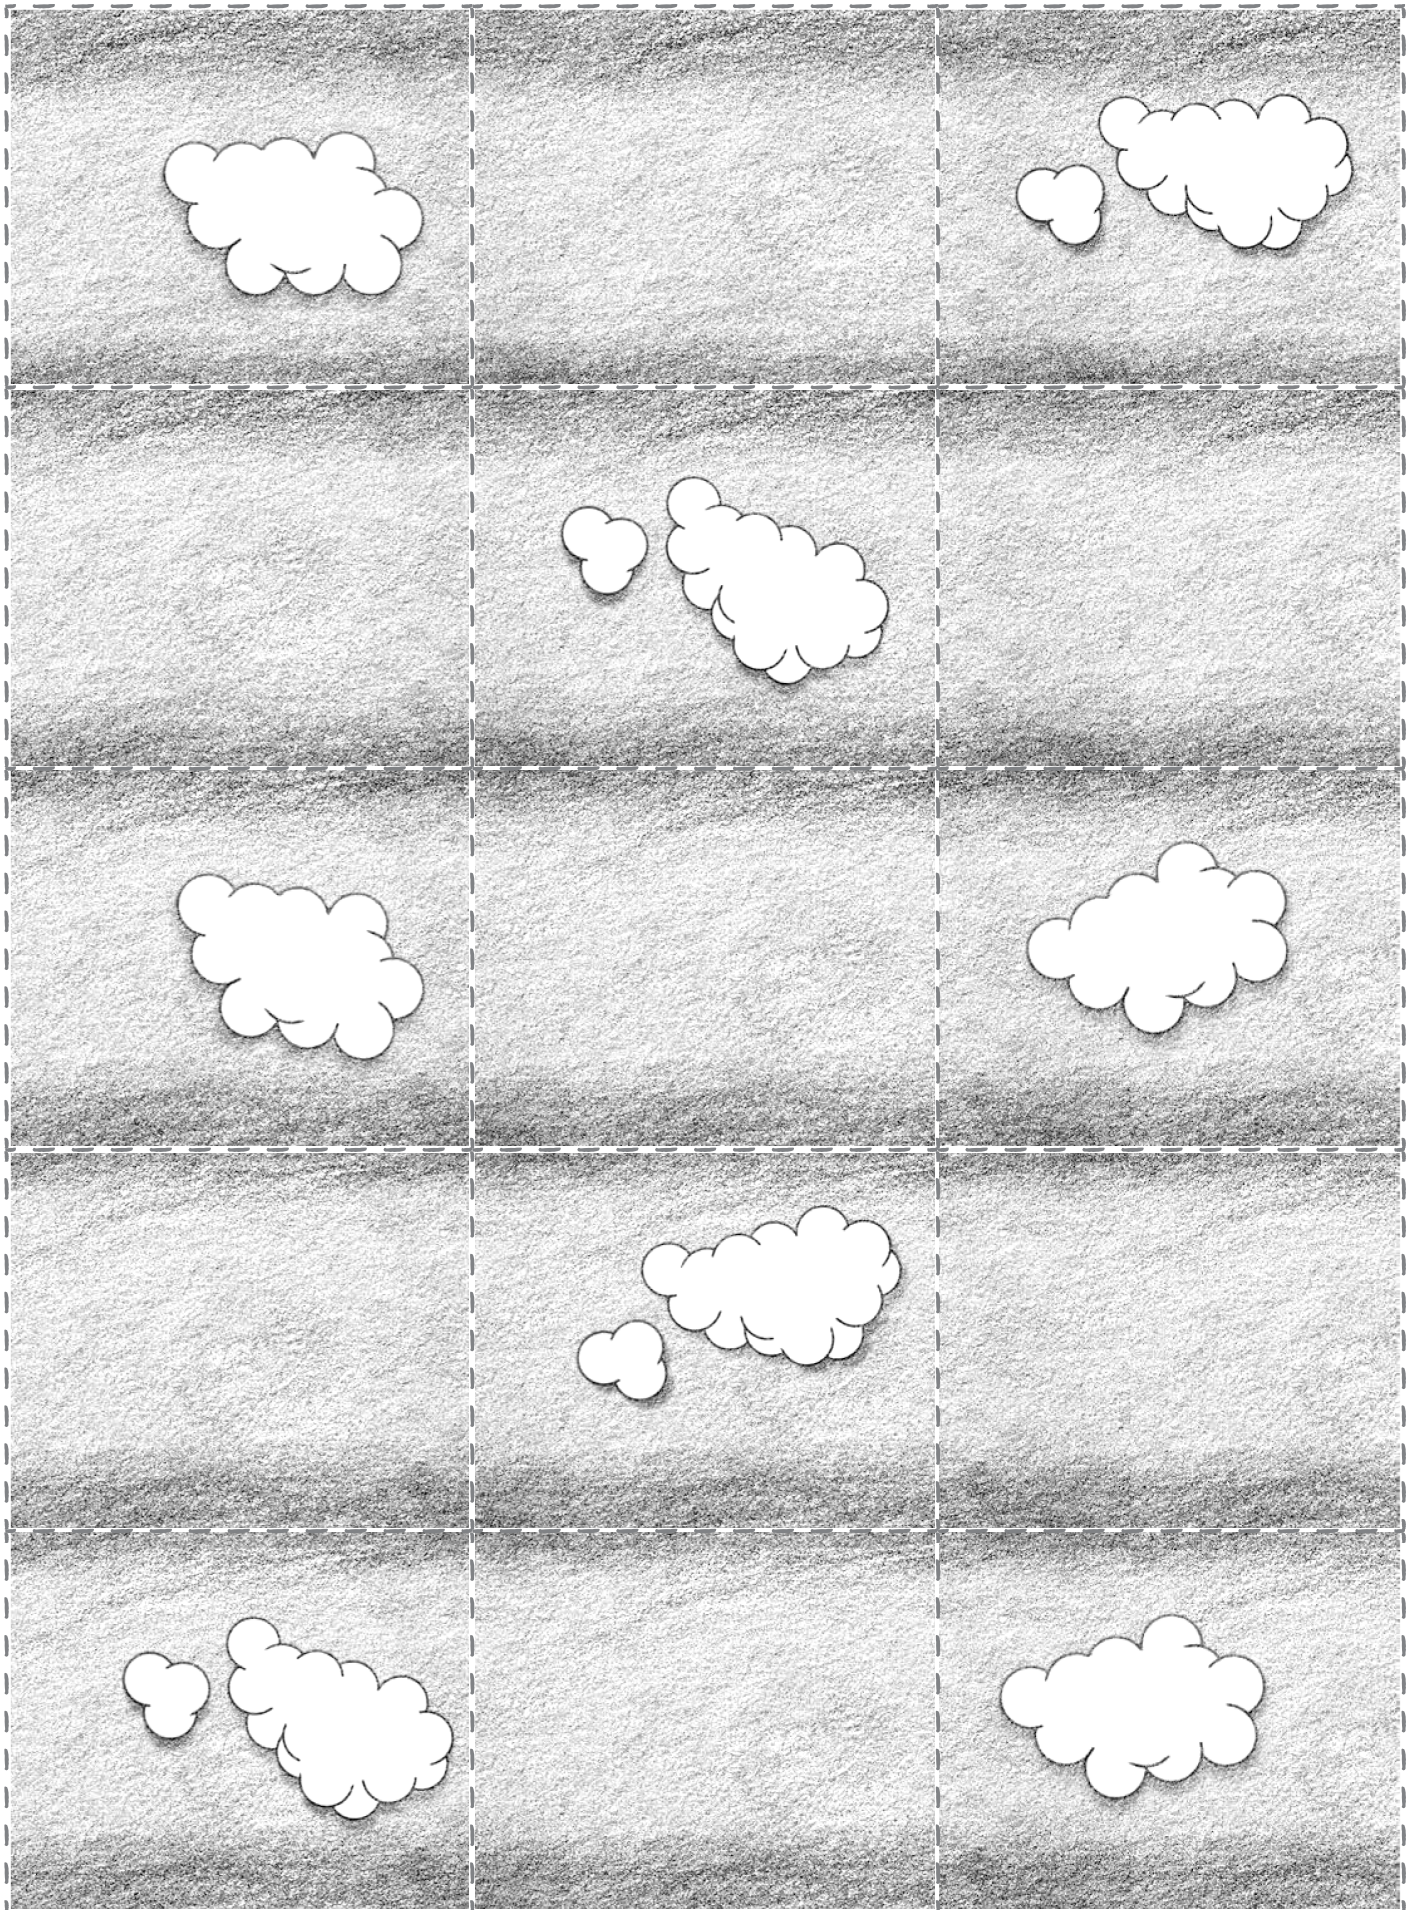

How to Play for Spelling

1. Place the racetrack cards in a pile.
2. Have your child choose a card from the pile and place it in front of him with the blank side facing up.
3. Dictate a spelling word for your child and have him write the word on the blank side of the racetrack card. If the word is spelled correctly, use the racetrack card to extend the road and move the car forward.
4. Continue until all the racetrack cards have been used and the car reaches the end of the track.
